

sergio forster

productive strategies - information and influence sala/latin american initiative lecture series

sergio forster

(buenos aires, argentina, 1960) productive strategies - information and influence currently co-instructor of the sala study abroad program in buenos aires -with prof. claudio vekstein, also arch. design and theory professor at the school of architecture and urbanism, buenos aires university, argentina. prof. forster will present part of his architecture practice in buenos aires as well as his latest design research on informal commerce and street markets in la paz, bolivia. his works and investigations have been published and exhibited in europe and latin america, and received the annual award by the buenos aires architects association, he won several competitions including a river coast project for buenos aires city, the school and synagogue 'casa de david' and more recently was recognized by the iberoamerican architecture & urbanism biennale for his research work in bolivia. he lectured at the gsd (harvard), cornell university, the aa (architectural association), london, universidad católica boliviana, and mayor de san andrés, la paz, bolivia and univ. de la plata and del litoral, argentina.

april 23 2007, 6:00pm, cds 321

School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture College of Design University and Forest Ave.
Tempe Campus

